In opening the meeting, Chairman Guy Mustaki and CEO Christian Petit painted the extraordinary picture of what 2022 represented and how Romande Energie handled the challenges it faced.

Following this presentation, the 85 shareholders in attendance at the Théâtre de Beausobre in Morges approved the 2022 Annual Report, which included a GRI-compliant Sustainability Report and the 2022 parent company and consolidated financial statements and the Statutory Auditors' Report. They also granted discharge to the members of the Board of Directors and the Executive Board from eventual liability and approved their remuneration.

No change to dividend

In line with its policy over the past seven years, the Board of Directors recommended paying a dividend unchanged at CHF 36 per share, representing a total of CHF 36.9 million based on the number of shares in circulation. The Annual General Meeting accepted this proposal.

Romande Energie to split the registered share

The proposal to split the Romande Energie Holding share into smaller units was also approved. The nominal value of the share will accordingly be reduced from CHF 25 to 1. As a result, the number of shares making up the share capital will increase from 1,140,000 to 28,500,000. The first day of trading for the new shares will be 28 June 2023.

Amendment to the Articles of Association

Following changes to the law governing public limited companies (sociétés anonymes) and the introduction of new provisions in the Swiss Code of Obligations effective 1 January 2023, shareholders in attendance accepted that the Articles of Association should be brought into line. These amendments introduce new options for calling and holding Annual General Meetings permitting the use of electronic systems.

Re-election of Group officers

Nicolas Fulpius, Stéphane Gard and Alphonse-Marie Veuthey were re-elected for one-year directorships, as was Mr Mustaki, who in addition was reappointed as Chairman of the Board of Directors for the same term of office. Ernst & Young will continue as the Statutory Auditors for the 2023 financial year and Gabriel Cottier, a public notary in Lausanne, was again designated as the Independent Proxy for a one-year term.
